

Programme Committee

Peter A. Bell (University of Syracuse), Vesna Crnić-Grotić (University of Rijeka), Alicja Jagielska Burduk (Opole University), Marie Linton (University of Uppsala), Jerca Kramberger Škerl (University of Ljubljana), Thalia Kruger (University of Antwerp), Ivana Kunda (University of Rijeka), Ines Medić (University of Split), Lucia Ruggeri (University of Camerino).

Organising Committee

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ivana Kunda (University of Rijeka) – president, Assist. Prof. Dr. Sandra Winkler (University of Rijeka), Dr. Danijela Vrbljanac, (University of Rijeka).

Contact Us

Faculty of Law
Hahlić 6
51000 Rijeka, Croatia
Phone: +385 51 359 684
Email: ridoc@pravri.hr
Web: www.uniri.pravri.hr

RiDoc K!DOc

Rijeka Doctoral Conference RIDOC 2018

UNIVERSITY OF RIJEKA
FACULTY OF LAW
7 December 2018

Conference Programme

45 years of legal studies in Rijeka

Registration 8:30 – 9:00

Morning session I

9:00-11:00

Panel: Prof. Dr. Edita Čulinović Herc (University of Rijeka), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Jerca Kramberger Škerl (University of Ljubljana), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Antonija Zubović (University of Rijeka)

Aleksandrs Fillers, University of Antwerp, Free movement of companies: In search of new methods and objectives

Fulvio Marone, University of Salerno, Reflections on selected issues relating to the trust in the English legal system

Martina Scopsi, Bocconi University, Voluntary delisting in Europe: Different rules, same goals?

Kevin Labner, University of Vienna, Partial settlement by way of “admission agreement”: Why is contractualisation within the law of admission not feasible?

Zef Vučaj, University of Ljubljana, The role of easement as an insurance element in energy investments

Morning session II

9:00-11:30

Panel: Prof. Dr. Nataša Žunić-Kovačević (University of Rijeka), Prof. Dr. Saša Nikšić (University of Zagreb), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ivana Kunda (University of Rijeka)

Tea Hasić, University of Zagreb, Intellectual property rights as a tool to protect traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expressions

Jakub Hablovič, University of West Bohemia in Plzeň, Protection of personality: Respect and honour

Anna-Lena Hoffmann, University of Rijeka, Requirements for consent to the processing of health data under the General Data Protection Regulation

Alessia Sbroiavacca, University of Udine/University of Trieste, “Sin taxes” as a means for orienting consumers’ behaviour: Between health care policies and tax concerns

Mindy Nunez Duffourc, University of Passau, Using the German model to improve the reliability of medical malpractice litigation outcomes in the United States

Martina Vivirito Pellegrino, University of Verona, The precautionary principle in private law: The challenge of its implementation in healthcare services

Coffee break 11:00 -11:30

Plenary session

11:30-13:30

Mr. Branko Baričević, Head of the EU Representation in Croatia
THE FUTURE OF EUROPEAN UNION

Prof. Dr. Vesna Crnić-Grotić, Dean of the Faculty of Law in Rijeka
THE APPLICATION RATIONE TEMPORIS OF THE EUROPEAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Lunch break 13:30 -14:30

Afternoon session I

14:30-16:30

Panel: Prof. Dr. Fabio Padovini (University of Trieste), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sandra Fabijanić Gagro (University of Rijeka), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Emilia Miščenić (University of Rijeka)

Paolo Palminteri, University of Rijeka, Immunity of state officials

Nexhmi Rexhepi, University of Rijeka, Through transitional justice: Jurisdiction of the Kosovo Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor’s Office

Katarzyna Dziewulska, Opole University, What would happen if there were the “golden train” from Wałbrzych?

Latifah Almeer, University of Dundee, Harmonisation of law from a cross-border perspective with some reflections on the GCC and the EU

M. Z. Ashraful, South Asian University New Delhi, Should Bangladesh accede to the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods?

Afternoon session II

14:30-16:30

Panel: Prof. Dr. Vesna Rijavec (University of Maribor), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mirela Župan (University J. J. Strossmayer of Osijek), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sandra Winkler (University of Rijeka)

Maja Čarni Pretnar, University of Ljubljana, The special nature of procedures used in international child abduction proceedings

Justyna Gumuła-Kędracka, University of Silesia in Katowice, The European Union law on international child abduction: Is the duty of mutual trust enough?

Mary O’Connor, Queen’s University Belfast, The European Convention on Human Rights and the rights of the cross-border surrogate child

Laura Deschuyteneer, University of Ghent, The influence of European Union private international law on the exception of international public policy in the matters of recognition and enforcement of judgments

Gerardo Javier Ulloa Bellorin, University of Camerino, Tourist protection in consumer contracts: A comparative study between the Italian legislation and the proposal for a Hague Convention

Afternoon session III

14:30-16:30

Panel: Prof. Dr. Zlatan Meškić (University of Zenica), Prof. Dr. Eduard Kunštek (University of Rijeka), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Vlatka Butorac Malnar (University of Rijeka)

Stephan Walter, University of Passau, Arbitration as a default rule for resolving international commercial disputes

Aliz Káposznyák, Eötvös Loránd University in Budapest, Recognition and enforcement of investment arbitral awards in light of the most recent developments in the European Union: Where do we stand now?

Alexander Hiller, Ruprecht-Karls University in Heidelberg, Extraterritorial arbitration and the New York Convention: The case of the New UAE Arbitration Law

Agata Cevc, University of Ljubljana, Civil liability of judges and arbitrators