

About Us

The Faculty of Law in Rijeka is proud of its nearly fifty years of achievement in providing high-quality legal education at both graduate and postgraduate levels. It offers a stimulating research environment through its expanding international network, lectures, seminars and conferences, data service, project involvement, and doctoral programme.

Our strengths are postgraduate programmes with modern curricula responsive to the needs for practice-oriented specialisation, particularly in the field of digital, financial and company law. We are also dedicated to high academic standards in our endeavour to attract ambitious doctoral and postdoctoral research of innovative topics.

About RIDOC 2023

Aim of the Conference

RIDOC is intended for doctoral candidates who wish to present and test their preliminary research findings before academics and practicing lawyers, as well as to discuss these findings with their peers at international level. Eligible speakers are those enrolled in a doctorate study or a doctoral school on the day of the deadline for applications. The topic of their doctoral dissertation has to be in the field of law or other field provided the topic is closely related to law. The conference language is English.

Exchange your research, test your hypothesis, participate in discussions, grow your scholarly network, open your horizons.

Conference Programme

The conference includes a keynote lecture by renowned experts to discuss issues of methodology, writing, academic standards and integrity. The core of RIDOC – the doctoral candidates' presentations – are organised in several thematic sessions chaired by panels of recognised academics and practitioners in law. It is planned as an online and onsite event. Lunch and refreshments will be provided by the organiser.

Programme Committee

Ivana Kunda (University of Rijeka) – president, Stjepan Gadžo (University of Rijeka), Thalia Kruger (University of Antwerp), Yseult Marique (University of Essex), Enis Omerović (Prince Sultan University), Agustin Paris (University of Maastricht), Ilaria Pretelli (Swiss Institute of Comparative Law), Maciej Serowaniec (Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń), Poomintr Sooksripaisarnkit (University of Tasmania).

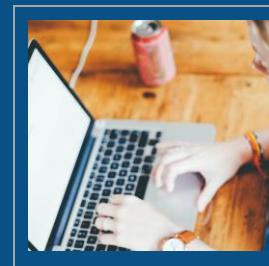

Call for Applications

Application

The application has to contain the title of the topic and an abstract of approximately 500 words, the applicant's CV in Europass format, brief data on the institution and the doctorate study/school the applicant is enrolled in and the applicant's mentor. The deadline for applications is 15 October 2023.

Review

All applications are subject to review by the Programme Committee composed of recognised members of the academic community and originating from various countries. The results of the review will be communicated to the applicants by 30 October 2023.

Presentation

Accepted topics will be presented at the conference on 8 December 2023. The most successful candidates will have the opportunity to offer her/his paper for publication in the Collected Papers of the Faculty of Law, University of Rijeka or the Balkan Yearbook of European and International Law (Springer).
